Note: Luke now turns his attention to the last six months of Jesus' ministry. Jesus sets His face toward Jerusalem (9:51). This appears to suggest one last journey to the city, but in fact there is other travelling that occurs during this time. Some have termed this section (9:51-19:27) the Perean ministry, an area just beyond the Jordan between the Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea. Luke spotlights the teaching of Jesus in this section, notably the parables of Jesus. Many of these are unique to Luke's gospel.

11. What time does Jesus now reach in His ministry? What is His response?
12. How do James and John react to the Samaritan rejection?
